

Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic Committee

Executive Roles 2025/26

Chairperson

The primary leader of the committee. The person who is responsible and accountable for the success of the committee and its activities. The Chairperson leads the committee and chairs committee meetings, they also attend meetings of Union Assembly.

If you are interested: you need to be able to delegate and work constructively with a range of people and personalities. You need to be willing to take the lead and be held to account if things don't go to plan.

General Secretary

The person who makes sure it all works smoothly. The General Secretary oversees the committee's finances and other resources, they book rooms, schedule meetings, and handle any paperwork.

If you are interested: you need to be an organised and efficient person. You need to be confident managing a budget, a schedule, and administrative processes.

Networking Officer

The link for the committee with societies, clubs and other student groups. They also make connections with other people and organisations for the benefit of the committee and students' careers. They will lead collaborative events and activity.

If you are interested: you should be someone who loves networking and meeting new people. You need to be comfortable reaching out and building mutually beneficial relationships with others.

Editor of the Newsletter

The person who leads the discussion amongst members of the committee. They will co-ordinate the publication of a regular newsletter to all members of the committee. The Editor will be constantly looking out for valuable opportunities to share with members of the committee: placements, volunteering, and opportunities to contribute to their community.

If you are interested: you need to love communications for this role. Are you a great researcher? Are you the person in your friend group who always finds out about things first? You need to be confident to take on the management of the newsletter and ensure it goes out on time, every time.

Events Officer

The people who organise great events to bring Black, Asian and Ethnic Minority students together to network, socialize, and campaign.

Social Media Officer

The people who manage the committee's social media accounts.

Podcast Host

The people who create, host, and publish our podcast: <https://bailriggfm.co.uk/shows/bame-committee-podcast/>.

If you are interested: you need to be willing and able to lead the debate and keep students informed, you also need to be comfortable with the sound of your own voice!

Project Manager

We'd love to run some campaigns and projects to support the empowerment of Black, Asian and Ethnic Minority students in their university experiences, skill development, and career prospects.
